

IndianOil

Don't fall prey to false promises

It has come to our notice that some unscrupulous agencies/person(s), purporting to represent Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IndianOil), are fraudulently offering false employment opportunities in IndianOil. Such bogus agencies/person(s) are sending fraudulent e-mails/ messages on social media and claiming money from candidates against the promise of facilitating aforesaid appointments.

The general public is hereby informed that all the vacancies in IndianOil are notified in leading newspapers and the Employment News/Rozgar Samachar, through detailed job advertisements mentioning the eligibility criteria (including academic qualifications, permissible age, experience requirement, if any, relaxations extended to reserved category candidates, etc., for any such vacancies) and the selection procedure. The same are also hosted on IndianOil's official website (www.iocl.com). Further, recruitment to any post, executive or non-executive, is not outsourced by IndianOil to any agency/individual.

It is to be noted that IndianOil does not solicit any money whatsoever from any candidate at any stage of the recruitment process, other than the prescribed application fee, if mentioned, in such job advertisements. Therefore, the general public is hereby cautioned not to fall prey to such bogus agencies/person(s) aiming at fleecing money from the innocent public through e-mails, social media, etc., and also urge the public not to believe any such promise of facilitating aforesaid appointments.

IndianOil will not be responsible in any way for the amount paid by any individual to such agencies/person(s) purporting to be representing IndianOil.

The general public is advised to rely only on the information hosted on our official website (www.iocl.com) for any job/career-related information pertaining to IndianOil.
